W. M. COZZENS & CO.

TO THE LADIES.

WASHING, BLEACHING AND CLEANSING FLUID, the greatest labor-saving article yet discovered. By its use, washing machines and boards are entirely dispensed with, and no quarter the labor is required to do the washing of a family.

The Fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the delicate fabric.

The expense is not more than that of the soap ordinarily used, and besides this, it will be seen that the great wear and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hard rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pointed iron, is wholly avoided, and an improvement is thus made. It is emphatically the female's friend.

It will arrest all grippey satisfaction, or the mucus will be refunded.

For sale by C. G. G. HAZARD,

The Daily News.

NEWPORT,

BY CRANSTON & NORMAN,
127 TRAFALGAR STREET.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 16, 1851.

On the censurability of the Fugitive Slave case, that of Sims, in Boston, must be a gratifying event to every lover of the Constitution, and to every friend of the Union. However much any of us at the North may detest Slavery, and however much we may desire to see it abolished, the friends of law and order and of good government must be glad that the law has been enforced, and that the wild spirit of rebellion, among a few in Boston, has been most signally and effectually put down. Put down, not by the force of military power, but by the force of the civil law in its majesty. It is not for the people to undertake to revert the law, on the ground that it is unconstitutional or that it is impolitic; when a law has once been made by the proper authorities, that law, be it what it may, must be enforced, at all hazards and under all circumstances; and if the law is an unpopular one, there is a proper remedy, through the law-making power.

We have always been confident that the trouble in Boston, in regard to cases under the Fugitive Slave law, was caused by a few violent, mad and unprincipled men who were determined to do all in their power to fan the flame of disunion. These men have poured out the vials of their beastly wrath upon Daniel Webster, in no measured terms. They have in the all manner of perfectly groundless charges against him; and they have attacked him in language worthy only of the deviated disciples of Billinggate. It is true that their leperous tongues cannot reach him, and the slime of their venom can never tarnish the nobility of his character. He lives and moves in an atmosphere that is as much above them, as heaven is removed from the regions of the everlastingy doomed. Sumner, Wright, Parker, Colver and the whole tribe of his assailants, are as far beneath him, as it is possible for men lost to all self-respect to be below the noblest of our race.

Our Boston friends have shown, in the Sims case, that they have a profound and abiding respect for law, and that they are determined to enforce the Fugitive Slave Law, so long as it remains in force, even in the very face of the wild fanatics who threaten and bully in tones of thunder.

Adam and Eve will hold their last Grand Levee this evening at Bleeker Hall. The many high compliments paid to them by all visitors, will ensure them a crowded audience, to take a last farewell.

There will be an extra exhibition this afternoon at 3 o'clock.—Albany State Register.

We have hitherto been under the impression, probably erroneous, that Adam and Eve held their last grand Levee, in Paradise, soon after the creation of the world. But it seems that the Alabamians are to have the honor of this performance.

In a New England village church on Sunday, where a marriage was to be celebrated, the minister broke suddenly off from a solemn discourse, and exclaimed, "Those who wish to get married till pleasure rise." Most of the young ladies of the congregation, thinking this general invitation, got upon their trotters, to the infinite amusement of the male portion of the congregation.

An individual who owns a ranch on Sacramento street, just above Stockton, has fenced in his lot with what were once ready made coffins. The appearance of the fence is singularly grave, reminding one of the numerous speculations upon the misfortunes or necessities of the people here a few months since, as forcibly as it exposes the bad taste of the owner. The pieces which are painted black are placed upright, looking in the aggregate like a stack of coffins, set upon end. What a spot for witches and hobgoblins.

TWINS ALL AROUND.—The recently published history of the town of Bedford, N. H., in speaking of one of the original families of the place, says of John Burns, son of John, as follows:—

"John had twelve children—six sons and six daughters. He could say, 'I had a twin brother and twin sister, twin children, twin grand children, and twin great-grandchildren, twin nieces, twin grand nieces, and two grand nephews; a twin brother-in-law, a twin sister-in-law—and am a twin myself.'

The Fugitive Slave Law.—The riot at the lecture of Mr. Leathem in Milwaukee was quite as bad as the telegraph reported. More than a score of persons were seriously hurt, and among the most injured were Mr. L. S. Kellogg, an old man, one of the prominent members of the Methodist church, and Mr. G. J. Fowler, connected with the Milwaukee Mutual Insurance Co.

The clergy and principality of the Roman Catholic church have published a card in the Wisconsin, expressing their "unqualified condemnation and abhorrence" of the acts of the rioters, and engaging "that the injury to the property of their Methodist brethren shall be made good to them."

FIVE THOUSAND LABORERS WANTED.—The Philadelphia North American of Saturday, announces that five thousand laborers are required on that part of the railroad lying beyond Johnstown. The work will give employment for two or three years, in a healthy region, where boarding may be had at the rate of $2 per week. The contractors are stated to be highly respectable and responsible men. The wages paid are $1 per day, and arrangements have been made to send every applicant, free of charge, to Johnstown, the point at which the work begins.

THE book of Stock in New York, for the sale of dry goods, is valued on the Assessor's book of the Sixth Ward, for this year, at $200.

DISCOURSES.—A friend who writes us complimentingly, that the Mirror's recent philippic against Waltzing has "banished that innocent amusement from the drawing room of several of his acquaintances," is informed that we have no objections to dancing after a decent and decorous fashion. On the contrary, we regard it as a very harmless and agreeable exercise. There is dignity and grace in the calm collision, healthful hilarity in the frolicking reel, lighthearted fun in the old fashioned "Four and After," and even in the whirling Waltz, originally introduced, there is little or nothing objectionable. It was a graceful gliding motion, and the partners approached each other with becoming deference and delicacy. But, rechristened by the "foreign aise" of levitous cities, the Waltz has degenerated into a mere apology for a voluptuous embrace, and a violent, wild, short-tempered motion, as ridiculous to the observer, as immodest in the performer.

Heaven knows we are no bigots; the multitude of our sins probably lie in the direction of liberalism; and we would be the last to abridge the innocent pleasures of life. At best, one's days are soon over in this world of gathering clouds and cares; and there is some sensible philosophy in the horrid motto—"Go it while you're young." But there is reason, or there should be, in all things; and we can see no good reason why the rising generation of Waltzers should "go it" exactly in the way they do—with such a "perfect looseness" in regard to the laws of propriety and refinement; and with such an utter recklessness of other people's toes and daughters.—N. Y. Mirror.

We agree with the Mirror in its sensible remarks on Waltzing, as it has been abused in modern days. What has changed our friend Fuller's opinion on the subject? It is only about a year and half ago that we wrote several strictures on the subject, and the Mirror rather ridiculed our remarks then, although they were of the same character which the Mirror now puts forth. We are glad, Col. Fuller, that, like a sensible man, you have become converted.

NAVAL.—The Norfolk Beacon says that Lieut. Wain was sentenced, by the court martial which recently sat on board the U. S. ship Pennsylvania, to be dismissed from the service. The sentence has, we learn, been commuted by the President to twelve months' suspension without pay.

Lieut. Strickland, of the U. S. Marine Corps, was also sentenced to be cashiered, and his sentence has been commuted by the President to twelve months' suspension without pay.

The greatest pleasure of life is love, the greatest treasure, contentment; the greatest possession, health; the greatest ease, sleep; and the best medicine, a true friend.

COMET ENDANGERING THE EARTH.—A.D. 1712, Whiston predicted that the comet would appear on Wednesday, 13th October, at five minutes after five in the morning, and that the world would be destroyed by fire on the Friday following. His reputation was high, and the comet appeared. A number of persons got into boats and barges on the Thames, thinking the water the safest place. South Sea and Indian stock fell. A captain of a Dutch ship threw all his powder into the river that the ship might not be endangered. At noon, after the comet had appeared, it is said that more than one hundred energymen were forced over to Lambeth to request that proper prayers might be prepared, there being none in the church service. People believed that the day of Judgment was hand, and some acted on this belief, more as some great temporary evil was to be expected. On Thursday, more than 7,000 kept mistresses were publicly and legally married. There was a prodigious run on the bank, and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, at that time the head director, issued orders to all the offices in London, requiring them to keep a good look-out, and have a particular eye upon the Bank of England.—Southey's Common-place Book.

THE MILWAUKEE RIOT.—The riot at the lecture of Mr. Leathem in Milwaukee was quite as bad as the telegraph reported. More than a score of persons were seriously hurt, and among the most injured were Mr. L. S. Kellogg, an old man, one of the prominent members of the Methodist church, and Mr. G. J. Fowler, connected with the Milwaukee Mutual Insurance Co.

The clergy and principality of the Roman Catholic church have published a card in the Wisconsin, expressing their "unqualified condemnation and abhorrence" of the acts of the rioters, and engaging "that the injury to the property of their Methodist brethren shall be made good to them."

THE CALIFORNIA LION.—We saw on Long Wharf yesterday, a large and beautiful specimen of the California Lion. It is of whitish color, over two feet in height, and measuring between seven and eight feet from tip to tip. It was killed some time since by Capt. Martin, near Sanelito, and has been carefully skinned, with a view of sending it to the States.—[Pacific News.]

AWFUL DEATH.—A steady, industrious young man was tending a circular saw mill in the township of Murray, Conn., recently, when the saw caught his great coat, threw him across the log and in an instant cut him completely in two.

MISS L. A. SMITH, Water-Cure Physician, may be seen at Horton's Hotel, Pelham St., for consultation and a trice, from 10 A. M. until 3 P. M.

NOW FOR ELECTION. 20 Boxes of New Sultana Raisins, without seeds or stalks, a convenient article for making Cake, this day received and for sale at RIDER'S, 171 Thorne St.

There are 102 clergymen of different denominations in Boston.

PUBLISHERS OF THE LAWS.—The complaints of certain prints, that their services, as publishers of the laws, have been dispensed with, appears to us as not a little unreasonable. We should imagine that all of them would be rejoiced at the opportunity to get rid of the obligation to give currency to statutes which violate not only the tenderness of their consciences, but also in the opinion of most of them, we presume the Constitution of their country. How can such people have the wish to lend themselves for money to the crime of aiding and abetting the Executive in carrying forward its plan of subverting liberty, conscience, and the fundamental law; for all of which, to a man, they have an affection, as remarkable as it is sudden? Why, they might as well wear slavery cotton, and eat slavery rice and sugar, as print slavery laws.

These gentlemen are certainly mistaken. They are really glad to have escaped the patronage and bribery of the Government that hired them; and, as they have heretofore hated their employers, they are now in situation to say so. They are consequently great gainers by the change, and not only have an everlasting topic of reproach against their former masters, but a never-failing beggarly argument for new friends to make up for the damage they had suffered for conscious sake. Such press will now be able to decide which is the more profitable course in their vicinity—to be the organs of the law, or of traitors who conspire against it. Besides, in being turned out from the Post Master General, requiring this office to advertise letters twice a month.

LIST OF LETTERS. REMAINING in the Post Office Newport R. R., April 11, 1851, when called for please say "Advertised." Published agreeably to a recent order from the Post Master General, requiring this office to advertise letters twice a month.
